Chinook Media Group - Employee Handbook

Corporate Policies, Culture, and Operations

1. Welcome to Chinook Media

Welcome to Chinook Media Group. As part of our global team spanning Calgary, Edmonton, and our international digital hubs, you help connect millions of music lovers with their favorite artists, tracks, and playlists. Our mission is to preserve the rich legacy of physical and digital music while innovating for the future streaming landscape.

2. Organizational Structure & Leadership

Chinook Media operates under a structured hierarchy designed to maximize collaboration and support for our sales and engineering pipelines. Andrew Adams serves as our General Manager, overseeing multi-regional development and long-term corporate strategy. Reporting directly to the General Manager is Nancy Edwards, our Sales Manager, who leads our dedicated Sales Support Agents—including Jane Peacock, Margaret Park, and Steve Johnson.

3. Workplace Policies & Code of Conduct

All employees are expected to maintain the highest standards of professional integrity. Customer data security is paramount; absolute confidentiality regarding customer purchase histories, billing details, and customized playlist profiles is required. Performance is reviewed quarterly based on invoice processing efficiency, customer satisfaction metrics, and adherence to licensing frameworks.

4. Remote Work & Regional Offices

While our corporate headquarters remains in Calgary, Alberta, we support distributed teams globally. Employees working remotely must maintain secure VPN connections when accessing core SQL databases containing invoice or inventory logs to ensure compliance with digital privacy standards.
